

Deluxe "Exoflex" Articulating Braces

Our new "Exoflex" articulating brace has the following features:

- Available in various heights for different levels of control.
- Polypropylene shell.
- Available with extrinsic posting.
- Front closure includes padding, leather gauntlet and lacer interface.
- Foot plate to mets, sulcus or marked length on cast.
- Available with free-motion Tamarack™ joints that allow for fluid motion through gait, no friction joint or parts to wear out.

Clinical Applications:

- Sports Injuries
- Posterior Tibial Tendon Dysfunction
- Arthritic Ankle Subtalar and Mid-Tarsal Joints
- Early Charcot Foot
- Ankle Instability
- Pes Planus
- Severe Pronation

Suggested CPT Codes:

L1970 Ankle Foot Orthosis, plastic with ankle joint, custom-fabricated.	$803.25
L2820 Soft Interface for molded plastic below knee.....	$97.62
L2330 Addition to lower extremity, lacer molded to patient model.....	$372.02

Total reimbursement if using the above codes in Maine. $1272.89

 The CPT codes above are for your reference only. PTOL does not recommend or endorse any of the above codes. Please check with your local DME agency and your insurance company to verify correct billing.*

Standard 7-day manufacturing time.

